Foreword.

THE aim kept in mind in preparing The Year Book for 1911, has been to provide a concise manual, covering in a systematic way, the history and activities of The Reformed Church in the United States. It is a compendium which, placed in the hands of members of our Church, will give them, in briefest form, the essential facts of their de-nominal history and work; and at the same time, given to those outside of the Reformed Church, will post them on its story and policy. Along with this, there are sufficient glimpses of the Church in general to indicate the relation of our branch of the Christian church to that Church as a whole.

The Church's Remarkable Growth.

WHEN Christ died on the cross he left a little unorganized group of distracted followers who seemed incapable of making any impression upon their age. Less than two months later, there was a church, with some form of organization, numbering probably over six thousand. From that time on, through the Spirit-directed and Spirit-prospered efforts of the Apostles and their co-workers "the Church spread through Asia and over into Europe 'as by a holy contagion'."

In less than three hundred years Christianity was officially recognized and accepted by the Roman Emperor. There were centuries of persecution, and other centuries of outward prosperity accompanied by spiritual decadence. But in numbers, the progress of the Church was steadily maintained as these figures show:

Close of first century	500,000
Close of second century	2,000,000
Close of third century	5,000,000
Close of fourth century	10,000,000
Close of fifth century	15,000,000
Close of sixth century	20,000,000
Close of seventh century	25,000,000
Close of eighth century	30,000,000
Close of ninth century	40,000,000
Close of tenth century	50,000,000
Close of eleventh century	70,000,000
Close of twelfth century	80,000,000
Close of thirteenth century	75,000,000
Close of fourteenth century	80,000,000
Close of fifteenth century	100,000,000

Close of sixteenth century	125,000,000
Close of seventh century	155,000,000
Close of eighteenth century	200,000,000
Present time	400,000,000

Dr. Zeller, director of the Statistical Bureau in Stuttgart, Germany, estimates that there are 1,544,510,000 people in the world, of whom 534,940,000 are Roman, Greek and Protestant Christians, 175,290,000 are Mohammedans, 10,860,000 are Jews, and 823,420,000 are heathen. Of these last, 300,000,000 are Confucianists, 214,000,000 are Brahmans, and 121,000,000 Buddhists, with other bodies of lesser numbers. This means that, out of every 1000 of the earth's inhabitants, 346 are nominal Christians, 114 are Mohammedans, 7 are Israelite and 533 are of other religions.

The wealth of the world is estimated at $366,300,000,000. More than one-half of this vast wealth is owned by the United States and Great Britain—the United States owns $120,000,000,000, and Great Britain $68,000,000,000; all the other nations own $178,300,000,000. The United States owns enough wealth to give every man, woman and child $1,400.—

In a recent six months $13,000,000 was invested in new churches in 14 of our southern states.

Through the agency of its organized work in non-Christian lands the Church is making gratifying progress. The annual additions in connection with this foreign work aggregate almost 600,000, with proportionate property increase.

Reformed Church History in Brief.

By the latter part of the fifteenth century the church, powerful politically, had become so corrupt spiritually that noble-minded men within it raised their voices in stern protest. Among these were Zwingli in Switzerland, Luther in Germany, Calvin in France, and later in Switzerland, and others.

Through their efforts a Reformation Movement was started which resulted in the organization of the Reformed or Protestant Churches made up of men and women who would no longer tolerate or condone the abuses and corruption of the Roman Catholic Church. In Switzerland and Germany, composed of those who came out from the Romish Church, these new organizations came to be known as the Reformed and the Lutheran Churches.

Zwingli, a Catholic priest in Switzerland, and one of the first to protest publicly against the abuses of Rome is looked upon as the historic leader of our Reformed Church. He died on the battlefield of Cappel, while acting as chaplain for the Protestant forces against the Roman Catholic army, in 1531. The Reformed Church spread through Switzerland and over into Germany. In 1563 its summary of beliefs known as The Heidelberg Catechism, prepared by Olevianus and Ursinus, was adopted and introduced into the churches of the Palatinate (Germany). The Reformed Church gained strength rapidly in Holland, France and elsewhere, and was established in this country by refugees from Holland and Germany, by the former early in the seventeenth century (1609) in New York, and by the latter in Pennsylvania early in the eighteenth (1725). From Pennsylvania it spread southward through Delaware, Virginia, and the Carolinas, and westward, occupying a triangular territory, with its broad edge on the Atlantic and its point beyond the Rockies.

The Progress of a Quarter Century.

In the last twenty-five years our Church has made very rapid and gratifying progress. There has been a net addition of about 128,000 members. Nearly 500 ministers have been added to the list, and over 300 congregations. More than one million dollars a year more is given now than then for congregational purposes, and over $300,000 more is given for benevolence. Then our Foreign Missionary work was little more than nominal. Today we have a strong force at work in China and Japan. More than 110,000 scholars have been added to our Sunday Schools.

But these are merely figures. The Church has lengthened and broadened and deepened in other ways. Its institutions have flourished; its organization has been compacted and its practical activities along general lines have made a distinct advance. When our General Synod meets in Canton this year, reports will show that nearly five and a quarter million dollars have been raised in the last triennium for congregational expenses, and about one and a quarter millions for missions and other benevolence.

A large number of handsome and well equipped churches have been erected in this period, and a general spirit of aggressiveness has been awakened among all our laity, both men and women.

Our Home Mission Work.

THE Home Mission work in our Church is of the utmost importance. It lies at the basis of every other work. The establishing of churches in the large centers of population and in the frontier sections of the country, the proper spiritual care of the aliens, the leavening of our whole life as a nation is dependent upon the proper carrying forward of this great work. Upon it rests the stability of our country, the protection of our firesides, the peace and prosperity of our individual lives.

THE CITY.

Our work lies four square, the City, the Alien, the South, the West. The last census reveals the fact that almost half our population live in cities. The Church there has not kept pace with the growth of population. Our cities are not over churchied. Listen to these facts: In Boston a man must pass eleven persons before he meets one that is a member of an evangelical Protestant church.

In New York he must pass 13, in Buffalo 14, in Chicago 15, in Denver 18, in San Francisco 38. The last census shows that less than 35,000,000 out of 90,000,000 people in this country are members of any Protestant church. The largest number of these outside are found in our densely over-populated cities.

THE ALIEN.

More than a million and a quarter of foreigners come annually to our shores, more than there are people in the State of South Carolina, or Arkansas, almost as many as there are in Maryland and Delaware combined. The Reformed Church is doing some work among three classes of foreigners, among the Germans, the Hungarians, the Bohemians. We also have a Harbor Missionary at Ellis Island who looks after the spiritual interests of some of the immigrants that come by way of New York.

Our Home Mission Work.—Continued.

THE SOUTH.

Our Church went early into the Southland, but we have only about 8,000 members in the two Classes of Virginia and North Carolina. The South affords great opportunities for our church at this time. It has entered upon a new era of development. Towns and villages are rapidly springing up and the church should keep pace with this physical development.

THE WEST.

The West beckons the Church to enter its vast territory with far greater zeal and earnestness. Whole counties in Montana and Idaho and other sections are entirely destitute of religious worship.

The number of missions enrolled is 109. 56 of these are German, 9 Hungarian, 3 Bohemian. Three missions went to self-support in 1910—viz., Memorial, Easton, Pa., Steelton, Pa., and Lexington, N. C.

Our missions are among our best contributors to benevolence, some of them averaging more than $25 per member. The Missions in the English Synods gave last year over $16,000 for benevolence.

CHURCH-BUILDING FUNDS.

These constitute a most valuable part of the work. They enable the missions to obtain money from the Board for lots and buildings at a very low rate of interest. The Board has almost 300 of these Funds, most of which are $500 each, representing a cash value of more than $150,000. During the first six months of 1910, twenty-one of these Funds came to the treasurer.

The Outlook of Missions is the joint periodical of the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions and of the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod. It is splendidly edited, is full of valuable missionary information and should be found in every household of the Reformed Church. The subscription price is 50 cents per year. Write to the Outlook of Missions, 15th and Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

Our Sunday School Work.

It ought to be a source of joy and inspiration to every member of the church to know that during the past year the Sunday School membership of the Reformed Church in the United States has crossed the 300,000 mark. Who can estimate the opportunities such an enrollment means for the denomination, and the possibilities of growth and usefulness? The Reformed Church stands next to the Presbyterian Church North in the family of the twelve Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in this country, in point of both church and Sunday school membership.

An important problem for the welfare of our country, which must be solved largely by the Christian Church, is to make American Christians of the foreigners coming to our land, and to teach the children the Bible in our Sunday schools. There are two ways by which The Sunday School Board of the church is helping in this work. One is by the publication of a weekly Hungarian paper for adults, a Sunday School Hungarian monthly for teachers and scholars who are using the Hungarian language, and also Hungarian picture cards. It is hoped to undertake the other work in the near future, by the employment of a traveling Hungarian Sunday School Missionary, whose work will be to reach scattered Hungarian families and enroll the children of these families in our English Sunday schools. Our Sunday School Work.—Continued.

dren's Day are used for the support of this patriotic Christian work.

In addition to the Uniform International Sunday School Lessons, The Sunday School Board is now furnishing International Graded Lessons for Beginners, Primary and Junior, and also offers a First Course for the Intermediate Grade. The Graded Lessons for young children have been warmly welcomed. It is especially gratifying that here and there, pastors and workers use these Graded Lessons for the formation of classes of children from three to twelve years of age, taught several times a week in the Sunday school rooms of the church.

Do you know that the Reformed Church has published, through its Sunday School Board, perhaps the finest series of song books or hymnals for the Sunday School of any denomination in the land? The Sunday School Hymnal has been in use for ten years and its sales still continue. Many schools of other denominations are using this book. Standard Songs represents the character of book which it is well to use in the Sunday School and Young People's meetings. The Primary and Junior Hymnal is the largest and most complete collection of probably the best hymns for little children and boys and girls that is in print. The fifth edition of this book has just been issued. The Primary and Junior Hymnal circulates in schools of all denominations and is strongly commended to the national Primary and Junior workers.

The home is the best place in which to interest children in Bible stories. Educators are coming to see that the very best form of instruction for little children is the telling of stories. In our public schools, not only the Kindergarten, but the Elementary grades also, are making use of stories for the instruction of the young. The same of our Sunday Schools. In order to help the home in this important work, organize Mothers' or Parents' Classes. It is a good thing for parents to attend the Sunday School and especially to visit at times the Primary Department, but whether you do this or not, the fact remains that, as parents, you have the greatest opportunity and the largest responsibility for the moral and religious training of your children. The command is—"And thou shalt teach them (the scriptures) diligently to thy children."

Every Sunday School worker in the Reformed Church ought to know that the Headquarters of the denomination for information, for literature and for suggestions, is The Sunday School Board of the Reformed Church whose offices are located in the Reformed Church Building, 15th & Race Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. If you wish to know what your Sunday School Board is doing, write for a free copy of its reports. If you wish to know all the best books giving Bible stories, or anything else in relation to religious instruction, write to the Board and your letter will be promptly answered.

Immigration.

An immigrant comes into New York harbor about every half-minute.

Over 2,700 a day.

About 19,000 a week.

About 1,250,000 a year.

Immigrants are coming at the rate of 1,250,000 a year. And Europe alone can send us 3,000,000 a year—300,000,000 during the 20th century—and yet increase the source of supply. Immigration is likely to increase for many years to come, and whatever strain it places on our institutions is three times as great in the city as in the rural districts.

Recent immigration settles almost entirely in our large cities. New York city has more Jews than Jerusalem ever had, and more Italians than any city but Rome.

It will be seen from all this what an important post is that of Harbor Missionary Land at Ellis Island, and how great is this whole phase of our Home Mission problem.

Other Churches.

We are only one corps in the great church-army. The whole number of 32,936,445 communicants or members of all religious denominations in continental United States was reported for 1906, according to the U. S. census. Of this total the Protestant bodies reported 20,287,742 and the Roman Catholic Church 12,679,142.

For purposes of comparison the census authorities divided the principal cities into four classes, those having, in 1900, a population of 300,000 and over constituting the first class, those of from 100,000 to 300,000 forming the second, those of from 50,000 to 100,000 making the third, and those of from 25,000 to 50,000 forming the fourth class.

Of the Protestant aggregate there were 1,478,145 or 7.3 per cent. in the first-class cities, 4.7 per cent. in the second, and 7.4 per cent. in the third and fourth classes combined, while 80.6 per cent. were outside the principal cities.

Of the Roman Catholic Church's total membership there were 3,375,453, or 27.9 per cent. in first-class cities; 1,361,132, or 11.3 per cent. in the second; 1,570,944, or 13 per cent. in the third and fourth classes combined; with 5,771,613, or 47.8 per cent. outside the principal cities.

Only two of the Protestant bodies reported a majority of their membership in the principal cities—i. e., the Church of Christ, Scientist, 82.6 per cent., and the Protestant Episcopal Church 51.2 per cent.; while of the membership of the Jewish congregations 88.7 per cent. are in the principal cities, and of the Eastern Orthodox churches 70.7 per cent.

Of the total number of communicants or members reported for the principal cities by all denominations, 6,307,529, or 60 per cent. belonged to the Roman Catholic Church, and 3,935,341, or 37.4, to Protestant bodies.

The growth of religious bodies in the sixteen years between 1890 and 1906 was considerably greater than the increase in population, and that the gain in the larger cities was much greater than in the rest of the country. In the 160 cities that in 1900 had a population of 25,000 or more there were in 1906 469 members of churches for each 1000 of the population; while for the whole country the number was 391 to each 1,000. During the sixteen years there was a gain of 90 members to each 1000 in the principal cities, and of 51 outside of them. Another significant fact brought out is that in the principal cities there were 23.5 per cent. more female members than male, while in the whole country there were 32 per cent. more.

Foreign Missions in General.

$25,000,000,000 is the total wealth of the Protestant church members in the United States.

There are 16,000 missionaries at work in the foreign field. $25,000,000 was raised for this cause in 1909.

The amount given the previous year was about $23,000,000, an increase of $2,000,000. The United States and Canada gave over seven-tenths of this increase, although these two countries give only a little more than four-tenths of the whole amount contributed. Their total was $11,317,000, against $10,061,000 given the previous year, showing over twice the gain of any other year.

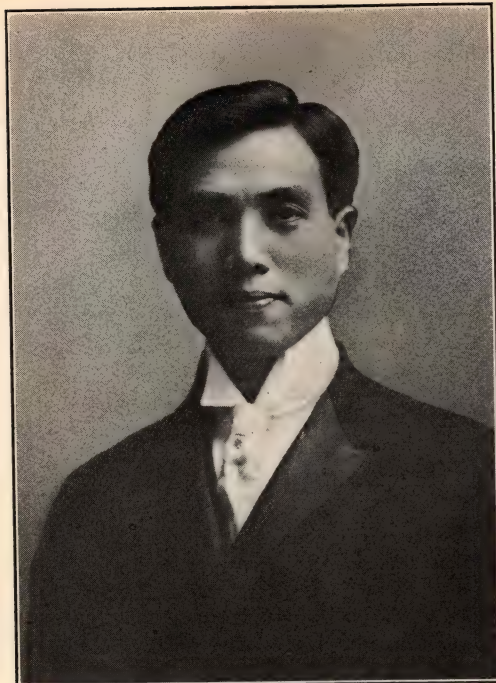

The increase in missionaries on the field was 1653. The weekly increase of converts was 2600! If this was made to include all who publicly expressed a desire to be known as Christians the total for the year would reach 600,000. The Men's Missionary Movement agitation contributed largely toward this deepening of interest and increase in results.

Salaries of Ministers.

The census ranks ministers lowest in pay of persons of education. The average salary for the United States is $636. Unitarians $1635. Next come the Episcopal, Unitarian, Jewish, Presbyterian, Reformed, Congregationalist and Catholic churches in that order.

Rev. J. Mori, Missionary to the Japanese on the Pacific Coast.

Our Young People's Work.

THERE are about seven hundred young people's societies in our Church with a membership of approximately twenty thousand, and gifts for the year estimated at from $15,000 to $20,000. In many of our congregations the young people's society is a vigorous branch of the organized church activities, and contributes largely in service and financially to the work of the church. A rapid increase is going on in the general work.

Total membership over 3,659,100.

The United States had 164,820 Christian ministers and 1084 Jewish rabbis in 1906, with an annual increase of nearly 4000. Total salaries paid, $69,667,587. M. E. ministers receive $16,150,100; Baptists, $10,323,000; Presbyterians $7,610,000; Roman Catholics $6,779,000; Episcopalians, $4,887,000; Congregationalists, $4,154,000; Reformed $1,682,000; Jews, $801,000. It is estimated, on the basis of these reports, that in 1910 the sum of $100,000,000 will be paid to ministers of the United States in personal salaries, and that congregational expenses, missions and extensions will involve an outlay of $200,000,000 more.

The Mission House.

It is generally known at this time that special efforts are being made to raise $50,000 as a Jubilee Fund for the Mission House College and Theological Seminary at Franklin, Wis. This is the first time in thirty years that this institution comes before the Church with a special plea. All the other interests of the Church have been liberally served during this time. Indeed the call for their support has been urgent and worthy, and it shall ever remain to the credit of the Church for having responded so liberally and promptly. Our missions in foreign lands have had their new buildings and their equipment; our colleges and orphanages have been liberally taken care of, and the Mission House is the only institution of the Church that has not made any special plea. The very fact that there are at present 195 ministers graduated by this institution, in active service of the Church, and that we shall need men who are thoroughly trained in English and German, and theology and science as well, while our Church is passing through the critical period of transition in regard to language, assures us that the mission of the Mission House is not yet completed and that this institution is absolutely essential to the life of our Church. It seems reasonable therefore that the Mission House should have the right of way during 1911.

This fund is to be raised simultaneously with the celebration of the Golden Jubilee, which will take place in September, 1912. A special campaign will be carried on during January, February and March 1911. During this time a personal gift is solicited from every member of the Church. The pastors and consistories, the classes and synods are diligently executing the plans which have been formulated. Let every member of our Church and of our institution rally to our support. We can do it if we will and we will do it with a long pull and a strong pull and a pull together.

The Committee consists of Rev. J. M. G. Darms, Buffalo, N. Y., Campaign Secretary; the Rev. H. C. Nott, Milwaukee, Wis., Treasurer, and Elder H. W. Tuecher of Cincinnati, Ohio.

J. M. G. DARMS.

The Women's Missionary Work.

The Women's Missionary Society is an important factor in our missionary work. Miss Gertrude Cogan, the Field Representative is rendering the cause excellent service. The value of women's work cannot be overstated. In 1909 the foreign missionary organizations in the U. S. and Canada, supported by women, had 815,596 members and gave $3,328,840. Of these the Methodist societies reported 199,846 members and $695,961; and the Presbyterian 90,000 and $460,730.

Central Seminary.

Eighth Reformed Church, Cleveland, O.

It is believed that before another Year Book is published the Central Seminary, at Dayton, O., will be quartered in a new commodious, and thoroughly equipped building of handsome architecture. We had hoped to include a cut of this proposed building in the Year Book this year, but plans are not sufficiently advanced for that purpose. Special progress has been made during the year by Field Representative Shultz, in gathering funds, and the results have been excellent. Central Seminary has never done better work than at present. There is a strong teaching force and a large attendance of students, and its outlook is encouraging in the extreme. Generous giving should continue to meet the needs of this important institution until it is thoroughly provided with needed buildings, and adequately endowed for its great work in our Church.

High Grade Pipe Organs

TIME and again have we proved to the Musical Public and Organists, that it pays to invest in well built and artistically made organs. Our organs are a source of enjoyment to Congregations and Organists and a standing advertisement for us. Simplicity, durability and charming tone quality has been our constant aim. To-day our organs have no superior, both tonally and mechanically. Our Magazine Wind Chest has many advantages in producing the best and most powerful tone possible, our Suspension Bellows gives the most even wind pressure, our Tilting Tablets instead of the old time stop knobs enables the organists to manipulate all combinations with remarkable ease, every part is easily accessible, these with many other improvements for which patents are pending, make our organs all that can be desired. Correspondence solicited.

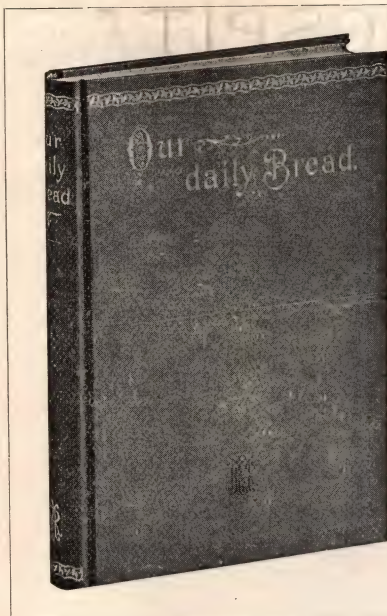

We also make the Schantz Electric Fan Blower, which is a model of simplicity, easily kept in order, efficient and noiseless. It is cheaper than the old-fashioned hand and water motor blowing and produces a steadier, rounder and richer tone. No tardy pump boy; always ready and reliable. Send for booklet.
